Telegraph and Flag Communication Cut Off—No Attack Reported.

Berlin and Paris Indignant at Each Other Over Moroccan Conditions.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

COLOMB-BECHAR (Algeria) Sept. 4.—A French column under Gen. Aillix is due at Boudenib tomorrow to reinforce the French force of 1500 men, reported to be surrounded by 15,000 Moors at this point.

Both telegraphic and flag communication with Boudenib are interrupted, but no new attack has been reported up to the time the transmission of information became impossible.

GERMANY SEES PLAN FOR FRENCH POWER.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

BERLIN, Sept. 4.—The French policy in Morocco has been interpreted in this city as designed gently to maneuver Germany out of any direct part in Moroccan affairs, with the ultimate purpose, supported by Great Britain, of acquiring that paramount position which was the object of France previous to the Algeiras conference.

The French aims are regarded today as being precisely what they were before Germany brought about this conference, and they come therefore into conflict with the present determination of Germany. This also may be described as exactly what was held at the previous Algeiras conference, namely, the independence of Morocco politically and commercially, with no superior position for France or other power.

Germany declines to recognize the theory of the French Foreign Office that France and Spain, being the mandataries of the powers in Morocco, alone have the right to initiate suggestions.

FRENCH RESENT CHARGE BROUGHT BY GERMANY.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

PARIS, Sept. 4.—French official circles resent deeply the intimation conveyed in inspired communications from Berlin that the effect that the real purpose of France in delaying the recognition of Mulai Hafid is to permit the republic to make advance private arrangements for the protection of special French interests.

The Associated Press today was authorized to publish the following: "You can categorically deny such

DISCUSS PENSION MATTERS.

SALT LAKE CHOSEN FOR NEXT REUNION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

TOLEDO (O.) Sept. 4.—Not for three years will the Grand Army of the Republic ask Congress for further relief measures.

It appeared to be the consensus of opinion of the leaders that too much hammering for pension bills and relief measures might soon create an undignified impression in the minds of Congressmen and reflect discredit on the Civil War veterans at the time in their lives when they would need the most assistance at the hands of the nation they helped to save.

Another way will be sought by the veterans to get before Congress those bills of legislation which they feel cannot wait. The attention of the G.A.R. delegates was called by Kate Brownlee Sherwood to the status of the pending widows' pension bill in which at present it is required that applicants shall have been married a number of years prior to the present date, that the present bill may be altered to allow the eligibility of those who marry up to the date of the passage of the bill, that the matter may be placed in the hands of the pension agents. The same plan may be used with regard to the amendments to the service pension bill.

At the wish of Gen. I. R. Sherwood his dollar-a-day pension bill was not brought for consideration, and a resolution asking Congress to pay ex-prisoners of war $2 a day pension was laid over.

After the installation of the newly-elected national officers at the morning session today, the G.A.R. delegates decided upon Salt Lake City as the next meeting place.

After Salt Lake City had been chosen for the encampment, Vice-Commander-in-Chief Scott notified the encampment that Atlanta would be the field for 1910.

ORVILLE WRIGHT IN LONGER FLIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Orville Wright made another flight over the drill grounds at Fort Myer, Va., today, in which he encircled the full length before landing directly in front of the tent which shelters the machine. The total time consumed in the flight was four minutes and fifteen seconds, the aircraft being under the control of Mr. Wright throughout the flight.

The wind was blowing at a rate of three and three-fifths miles an hour, the speed of the aeroplane was estimated at 36 miles an hour. Thirty feet from the ground was the greatest height attained in the two and a half miles covered.

This morning Mr. Wright replaced the rudder broken yesterday, and this

LOVE ME, LOVE MY DOG.

Mistress of Canines Follows Them to the Hotel Basement.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Down in the mysterious lower regions of the Auditorium Hotel, where steam pipes hiss and elevator cables rumble, sits Mrs. W. T. Godfrey, wife of W. T. Godfrey, who is the general manager of the Manufacturers' Trust Association in New York. She sits in the gloom of the porter's room to be near her four dogs.

They do not allow dogs in the Auditorium Hotel, but Mrs. Godfrey did not learn that until she asked that her pets and trunks be taken to her room.

Then down into the dungeons went the dogs, and down went Mrs. Godfrey with them.

"If they must stand it, I shall, too," she said, as she fondled the little terriers.

The dogs show no worry.

FIELD WEDDING WORRIES CHURCH.

CHICAGO CATHOLICS FEAR RITE WAS NOT REGULAR.

Believe Religious Marriage Was Performed, Following Civil Ceremony, as Is Custom in Europe. Otherwise, Whole Affair Is Incredible to Officials of Church.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Local officials of the Roman Catholic church, to which the widow of Marshall Field, Jr., has long belonged, today asserted that it was incredible to them that she had been married to Malcolm Drummond outside of the church, as has been reported. They believe that when all the facts are forthcoming it will appear that following the civil ceremony a priest performed a religious marriage in accordance with the requirements of the church.

"The marriage laws in England and in most European countries are different from those here," said the Rev. E. M. Dunne, chancellor of the Chicago archdiocese. "A civil marriage is required there by the state before a religious ceremony can be performed."

ENGLISH ARMY OFFICER SAYS HE IS DESTITUTE.

Charles E. Kilcourse-Lambert Applies to Mayor of Cincinnati, Offering to Wash Dishes if Necessary, and Showing a Fund of Fifteen Cents as Entire Resources.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CINCINNATI, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "See, I have just fifteen cents, one dime and a nickel. Saturday night my room rent is due. I haven't a friend in the city, sir, and I want work—work of any kind, sir. Washing dishes would do, for I haven't eaten a substantial meal in a week."

The plea was the usual one, the speaker was not a rare avian among the species. A tall, gentlemanly young man, smooth shaven, neat clothing, everything betokening a man on the high road to prosperity rather than one on the path to starvation.

"Lambert is my name, sir; Charles E. Kilcourse-Lambert, Oxford graduate, lieutenant in Her Majesty's service during the Boer War; cousin of the Earl of Cavan, and—but we'll let that pass. I'm not looking for charity; what I want is work."

The Mayor, to whom he appealed, today will try to find him employment. He told the Mayor that, that he was best man at the Duke of Manchester's wedding. Then he had $25,000, but horses, wine and women dissipated his fortune after which his people turned him off.

SHANGHAI POLICE BREAK UP A SMALL RIOT.

Arrest of Japanese Officer for Assault on European Woman Starts Trouble, Which Ends in Pitched Battle—Civilians Injured by Firing of Revolvers into Crowd.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SHANGHAI, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Outnumbered ten to one, bluejackets from a British cruiser in this port put up a desperate battle with Japanese non-commissioned men and a motley mob, until the police broke up the fight by free use of revolvers, firing repeatedly into the mob. Many Japanese civilians were wounded, but were carried away by their companions.

The fight started over the arrest of a Japanese officer for a particularly atrocious assault upon a low-class European woman, which was resented by the English Jackies.

The well-organized riot came simultaneously with the publication of a letter from the Japanese Consul-General to the Municipal Council, which was of a highly recriminatory and incendiary character and defended the rudeness of the nationals and the failure of his court to assist in maintaining order.

The feeling between the British and Japanese is intense and further outbreaks are feared.

RAWHIDE BURNED.

Mine Camp Almost Wiped Out.

Business Section Destroyed With Loss of Nearly a Million.

People Without Food and Many Homeless Appeal for Supplies.

Reno, Goldfield and Mining Towns Rush in Trains With Supplies.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

RAWHIDE, Sept. 4.—Three thousand people homeless, a score or more injured, and a property loss of over $750,000, is the result of a disastrous fire which started at 8:30 o'clock this morning in Dr. Garner's office, located in the Rawhide Drug Company's building. The fire spread quickly to the Ross Hotel, from whence its sweep was uninterrupted south and east to Balloo avenue, and up Rawhide avenue to within 50 yards of the People's Hospital. Over a ton and a half of dynamite was used in the demolition of buildings, which in a measure stayed the flames' progress. The volunteer fire department worked heroically, but on account of the inflammable construction of the buildings they were swept away like tinder.

At 11 o'clock the business portion of the city was a smoldering mass of ruins, the flames being finally checked south of Balloo avenue.

A famine threatens now, as all the grocery and supply houses were destroyed. Two commercial travelers are reported to have lost their lives in the burning of the Ross Hotel, but this has not been confirmed.

The town has been placed under martial law.

A subscription list has been started and over $5000 already has been subscribed. By tonight it is said $10,000 will be in the hands of the committee. The relief committee is headed by E. W. King.

The newspapers, Press, Times and Rustler, were saved, although the machinery of the News plant was destroyed.

A special train left Reno to rush provisions, bedding, etc., to the town.

HUNDREDS FOUGHT FIRE.

The fire, starting in a veritable fire trap, spread with lightning-like rapidity, and despite the vigorous efforts of the fire department and having burning planks and boards a great distance, setting fire to numerous buildings simultaneously. This catastrophe led the firemen to fight the flames with dynamite, which prompt action saved the outlying portions of the town.

A strong wind was blowing, which swept the flames southward across Rawhide avenue and east across Nevada street.

At 11 o'clock the total area was a mass of ashes and smoldering embers.

Among the first buildings to go was Collins' hardware store, which contained two tons of dynamite that exploded with terrific force, hurling burning planks and boards a great distance, setting fire to numerous buildings simultaneously. This catastrophe led the firemen to fight the flames with dynamite, which prompt action saved the outlying portions of the town.

A strong wind was blowing, which swept the flames southward across Rawhide avenue and east across Nevada street.

LOSS NEARLY A MILLION.

The buildings destroyed will alone result in a financial loss of $750,000, such no insurance. The contents of the buildings are a considerable loss and will swell the total considerably more.

Many people were slightly injured by flying debris, but none are reported seriously hurt. Many acts of heroism occurred and were it not for the cool-headed ones among the fire-fighters, several fatalities would have resulted. Fremont men, whose fortunes were going up in flames, rushed madly forward in their attempts to save their belongings, and would have perished had not restraining hands detained them.

A famine was feared, as all the supply houses and grocery stores were wiped out. Dispatches sent to Reno said: "We have lots of money, but no grub."

RENO SENDS RELIEF.

Acting on these messages, a subscription list was started and in a few minutes over $5000 was raised and a relief train started from Reno at 4 o'clock containing thousands of pounds of food and bedding. The train will arrive in a few hours and relieve the seriousness of the situation.

All the mining towns of the State came to the assistance of the Rawhide sufferers with cash contributions. The San Francisco Mining Exchange at once sent a contribution of $500.

A partial list of the heaviest losses is as follows:

First Bank of Rawhide, Bank of Rawhide, Press-Times building, Misspah Mercantile Company, Nevada Meat Market, the Northern (Tex Rickard's), E. E. Marx & Co., Nevada Club, Downer Hotel, Kelly's dance hall, the loss on the above aggregating over $100,000.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Standard Oil hearing now in progress here has caused many investors identified with oil stocks to look up the figures on crude oil production in this country, and a large number have been surprised to discover that California, among the States, leads in the oil production, which totals 500,000 barrels a day.

Of this half-million barrels, California now contributes 130,

BARRLED FROM THE CONVENT.

Visitation Sisters Will not Receive Miss Maloney.

Doubt Report That Girl Intends to Enter.

"Whole Thing Bad Enough as It Is," Says Nun.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It is the desire of Martin Maloney that his daughter, Helen, should become a nun. He will have to seek another convent than Visitation in Washington where his daughter was a student two years ago.
Married women are received into the order, but not without a mutual agreement between husband and wife. This is imperative and the agreement must be a life promise.
In this regard one of the sisters, speaking for the Mother Superior of the convent, today said:
"Helen evidently has no intention of going to a convent, even for seclusion. According to the way we understand the case, it is her father's wish and not her own, that she should go into retreat. We could not receive any one that way. A woman who comes within our walls, whether it be to become a nun or merely to get away from the world temporarily, must do so of her own free will. No one is ever forced into the convent. They must come willingly and prove that no force, coercion or persuasion has been used to bring them here."
Washington friends of Miss Maloney stated today that she would enter Visitation, but there has been no communication between the authorities of that institution and the family of Miss Maloney looking toward the visit of the young woman to Washington. The sisters here believe the reports that Miss Maloney is to enter a convent are wholly erroneous.
"The whole thing is bad enough as it is," one of the sisters said. "No, we could not take her here."

EXTRA SESSION CALLED TO CONSIDER LAW.

Republican Politics at Boiling Point Over Action of Gov. Hanly Taken in Opposition to Advice of Party Leaders, Who Fear Results on National Campaign.

Gov. Hanly of Indiana, who yesterday called a special session of the Legislature to act on reform measures long agitated by the executive.

enact a local-option law, with the county as a unit.
The Legislature is called to meet September 18 and the uncertainty as to what it will do will hamper the Republican speakers in respect to State issues and cause them trouble in various directions.
The Governor did not act without consulting his advisers, but he found them all opposed to his plans and acted against their advice. It is broadly intimated he is not enthusiastic over the State ticket and that if the Legislature does not bow to his will he will carry out his threat made at the State convention to take the stump against Fremont Goodwin, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor.
Many citizens, however, not politicians, are much in favor of a local-option law, with a county as a unit, and some of them think that the enactment of such a law would take the question out of the campaign and that the Republicans would profit by it.

FLEET BIDS ADIEU TO MELBOURNE.

MELBOURNE, Saturday, Sept. 4.—Punctually at 3 o'clock, the Conneticut, flagship of Rear-Admiral Sperry, commander-in-chief of the American fleet, weighed anchor and pointed her prow down the bay. With clock-like precision, fourteen others of the white-hull craft followed in her wake, and began the cruise to Albany, Western Australia.
The New Jersey remained in the harbor to convey the American mail, which is expected shortly, to the fleet. As the vessels passed down the bay, in single file, the hills and the towns of Melbourne resounded again with the booming of salutes from the fleet and the batteries ashore.
Scores of steamboats, yachts and launches, laden with cheering crowds, escorted the ships down the bay to the headlands where they remained until the American vessels were lost in the fog.
The headlands and shore were crowded with spectators to witness the end of the history-making visit, the full significance and potentialities of which it is believed have not yet been realized.
The American collier Ajax, which is accompanying the American fleet, was in collision in the harbor yesterday with the steamer Laura. Both vessels were badly damaged, but there was no loss of life.

JAPANESE PLANS GROW. ELABORATE RECEPTION.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

TOKYO, Sept. 4.—An outline of the official programme arranged for the reception to be accorded the officers and men of the Atlantic battleship fleet when it arrives in Japanese waters on its globe-girdling voyage, was furnished to the Associated Press today, giving a list of entertainments in addition to those mentioned in Associated Press dispatches of August 2.

The programme provides, on October 1, the day of the arrival of the fleet at Yokohama, for a dinner to the officers given by the Japanese commander-in-chief of the district and a reception by Gov. Suifuokuhi, of the city of Kanagawa.

On October 13 there will be a dinner given by the Mayor of Yokohama and a reception at which the city of Yokohama, represented by its officials, will be host.
Entertainments for the American officers from October 19 to 23, include an audience and luncheon with the Emperor, dinner with the Prime Minister, the Minister of Marine, a luncheon by Baron Terachi, a garden party by Admiral Togo and receptions to the officers of the entire fleet.
In the cities the Japanese theaters will be open continuously and free to the men of the fleet at all times. There will be daily excursions to points of interest in the surrounding country and those who want the Americans nothing, nor will any charge be made for admission to the baseball games, and various other sports planned for the amusement of the visitors.

GERMANS JOIN FLYING UNION.

One Society Builds Ships, Another Sails.

Five-Dollar Fee Secures One Voyage a Year.

Long-Distance Excursions Are Proposed.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
BERLIN, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The entry with which official efforts to maintain popular interest in the subject of aerial navigation are being prosecuted in Germany, is shown by the organization in Berlin this week of two new societies, the avowed purpose of which is to secure widespread public support of airship building enterprises. The first of these is the Berlin branch of the National Air Fleet Union, which has the support of the government. It holds open meetings on Mondays, has a low initiation fee and invites a large membership.
The second society is the Union for Airship Travel, of which Government Councillor Rudolph Martin is the leading spirit. It holds out to its prospective members the inducement of "airship excursions at popular prices," members who pay 20 marks ($5) or more annual dues being entitled to one or more trips a year, in proportion to the amount contributed.
The society, which held a preliminary meeting last night, proposes to collect funds for the construction of airships and the establishment of landing stations. Herr Martin hopes that in this way long-distance excursions on something like a commercial basis eventually may prove practicable.

MINE OWNER BURIED AT SEA.

George R. Williams Dies While en Route to Inspect His Property in Costa Rica.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW ORLEANS (La.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. B. C. McNair, a trained nurse of Sacramento, Cal., who accompanied George R. Williams, the aged and wealthy English owner of the Providence Mine, in western Costa Rica, who died at sea on route, to inspect his property, reached here today with the first details of his death.

Williams was very ill when he left California. He and the nurse reached here August 15 and took the steamer Corinto, August 22. The patient died at 2:45 o'clock on the morning of August 24, two days out of port. He grew much weaker after leaving New Orleans, but both Mrs. McNair and Capt. Gunderson, commanding the Corinto, say that his dying, though known to every one else to be only a question of a short time, seemed to have never occurred to him at all.

Capt. Gunderson held the impressive funeral service prescribed for burial at sea, and at dawn the body, weighted and wrapped in the national colors, slid from the vessel's side into the sea.

The resignation of Viscount Kaneko as director general of the Tokyo International Exposition has been accepted by the government. Viscount Kaneko tendered his resignation immediately following the decision of the government to postpone the exposition until 1917.

GRAFT PROSECUTION.

BLAKE HELD FOR BRIBERY.

Indictment for Attempt to Bribe Veneman.

Bonds Fixed at Ten Thousand Dollars.

Arrest Made at South San Francisco.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—E. A. S. Blake, the San Francisco contractor who was accused of attempted bribery by John M. Kelly, a veneman in the Abraham Ruef trial, and who was arrested this morning at South San Francisco, was this evening indicted by the grand jury and is held under bonds of $10,000.

The indictment contained but one count and specifies Kelly as the prospective juror to whom the bribe is alleged to have been offered. The indictment followed the submission of considerable evidence, some of which was furnished by Burns and his agents, to the effect that Blake, several weeks ago, approached Kelly, who had been drawn as a juror in the Superior Court, and offered $1000 if Kelly should succeed in "qualifying" for the jury and preventing the return of a verdict unfavorable to the defendant.

The story told by witnesses agreed in the main with the allegations made by Kelly when he was called for examination in court yesterday.

Blake was placed under arrest at South San Francisco by Officer Condon and was met at the Southern Pacific depot here by Burns. He refused to discuss the case and denied that he intended to flee from the city.

He said he went to San Mateo last night, returning this morning, and again going south as far as South San Francisco. He expressed his willingness to testify, stating that his position in the bribery matter had already been explained in an affidavit.

FAILS TO GET DIVORCE.

Sardis Summerfield Unable to Prove Allegations of Misconduct Against Wife.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) RENO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Sardis Summerfield's famous suit for divorce has ended without getting a decree. He must pay the costs of the trial. So the jury decided in the case which came to a close today.

The jury found that Mrs. Summerfield was not guilty of misconduct toward the respondent named, nor did she prompt the personal assaults made on the aged United States District Attorney by his son.

The Summerfield divorce attracted more attention than any other ever held in this city and much of the testimony was extremely sensational.

STANFORD SOPHOMORES WIN.

THE UP FRESHMEN.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After a struggle of thirty minutes the annual football game between the Stanford freshmen and the up-freshmen was won by the sophomores, who tied up nearly all the freshmen and lost only six-eight of their number.

The game was a close one, but the sophomores were about evenly matched at the start, but better organization soon gave the reds a decided advantage.

About 1500 people witnessed the struggle, which was strenuous, but developed no serious injuries.

LOS ANGELES FIRST.

County Given Award of $500 at the State Fair, Being Held in Sacramento.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—Over 5000 people were in attendance at the State Fair tonight. Louis G. Warren R. Porter, accompanied by Col. Theodore Gillet, attended in place of Gov. Gillet, who was unavoidably absent. Grand awards were given to the following counties:

Los Angeles, first; Fresno, second; Santa Clara, third; Monterey, fifth; Alameda, fourth; and Tehama, sixth.

Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, Mrs. J. T. Betts, who was married in the lions den, Wednesday night, will hold an informal reception to the public at a raised platform in the pavilion.

THOUSANDS HUNGRY.

Men in Fairbanks Are Without Work or Any Prospect of Getting Away.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) BELLINGHAM, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A movement is under way to drive and work an old shaft in the heart of the resident section of Fairbanks, Alaska, which is being taken from which rich ore was taken.

The Duke is 23 years of age. He is a cousin of the King of Spain and related to the King of Portugal.

REFUSED TO WED INVALID.

Long-Distance Courtship Ends in Disappointment When Consumptive Bride Arrives.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Coming from Bristol, Va., to wed the lover whom she had never seen, but who had wooed her through a matrimonial bureau, Miss Eleanor is ill in the County Hospital, her lover having abandoned her upon her arrival here. The girl has tuberculosis, and this fact prevented her marriage, and he sent her money to come here and marry him. Upon her arrival he learned that she had consumption and refused to marry her. A stranger in a strange land, without money or friends, the girl's situation is pitiable. She was placed at the County Hospital, where she will be cared for until she can communicate with her parents in Virginia.

COL. GREENE'S CAR SEIZED.

SUIT CAUSE OF ATTACHMENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The private car belonging to Col. W. C. Greene, the Canadian copper magnate, who arrived with his family from the Orient yesterday, has been seized by the Sheriff and the trip of the Greene family to the South is delayed.

The seizure was made on an attachment arising out of the suit filed against Col. Greene a few days ago by $125,000 alleged due to the plaintiff as the purchase price of certain Arizona lands sold to Col. Greene. Dr. Galt says that the seizure of the car is merely a result of a misunderstanding.

WOMAN BURNED IN HOUSE.

Children Watch Fire, not Knowing Mother is Dying Within.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—Mrs. J. B. Berkeley, who with her three young sons, occupied a house near Henry street, met her death this afternoon in a fire which destroyed the dwelling.

The children were out at the time looked on as the house was destroyed, not knowing that it was their mother's funeral pyre.

The husband of the unfortunate woman is a painter and is working in San Francisco. The Sheriff is endeavoring to locate him. The cause of the fire is unknown.

IMELY BREEZE SAVES BOAT.

ABOUT TO GO ON ROCKS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The motor launch Breeze, which left here yesterday from New Castle, a narrow escape from destruction the rocks of the Farallone Islands Wednesday, while lying becalmed in a heavy fog. The vessel drifted thirty and to the rocks and the crew resorted to the help of the tug that nothing could prevent the action of the craft, when a slight breeze sprang up and the West paid anchor, drifting out of danger.

C. C. Munroe, who was back to vessel and, taking advantage of light air, forced her out to sea by the neighborhood.

GOES NORTH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—E. H. Harriman left his summer home at Klamath Lake, to return to his special train in due time, on the main line of the Oregon Pacific, at 5 p.m., for Ashland, where he will be reached about 8:30 tonight. Here his train will stop until tomorrow morning, when it will stop at Willamette Falls, where Harriman is expected to stop over, and then proceed to Portland.

Mr. Harriman, general manager of the Harriman lines in Oregon, now on a vacation trip, will meet his wife at Ashland and accompany him to work old shaft.

Valley Will Try to Reach Rich Quartz Vein Underlying Town.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) GRASS VALLEY, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A movement is under way to drive and work an old shaft in the heart of the resident section of Grass Valley, which is being taken from which rich ore was taken.

The Duke is 23 years of age. He is a cousin of the King of Spain and related to the King of Portugal.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—Mrs. J. B. Berkeley, who with her three young sons, occupied a house near Henry street, met her death this afternoon in a fire which destroyed the dwelling.

The children were out at the time looked on as the house was destroyed, not knowing that it was their mother's funeral pyre.

The husband of the unfortunate woman is a painter and is working in San Francisco. The Sheriff is endeavoring to locate him. The cause of the fire is unknown.

IMELY BREEZE SAVES BOAT.

ABOUT TO GO ON ROCKS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The motor launch Breeze, which left here yesterday from New Castle, a narrow escape from destruction the rocks of the Farallone Islands Wednesday, while lying becalmed in a heavy fog. The vessel drifted thirty and to the rocks and the crew resorted to the help of the tug that nothing could prevent the action of the craft, when a slight breeze sprang up and the West paid anchor, drifting out of danger.

C. C. Munroe, who was back to vessel and, taking advantage of light air, forced her out to sea by the neighborhood.

GOES NORTH.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—E. H. Harriman left his summer home at Klamath Lake, to return to his special train in due time, on the main line of the Oregon Pacific, at 5 p.m., for Ashland, where he will be reached about 8:30 tonight. Here his train will stop until tomorrow morning, when it will stop at Willamette Falls, where Harriman is expected to stop over, and then proceed to Portland.

Mr. Harriman, general manager of the Harriman lines in Oregon, now on a vacation trip, will meet his wife at Ashland and accompany him to work old shaft.

Valley Will Try to Reach Rich Quartz Vein Underlying Town.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) GRASS VALLEY, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A movement is under way to drive and work an old shaft in the heart of the resident section of Grass Valley, which is being taken from which rich ore was taken.

The Duke is 23 years of age. He is a cousin of the King of Spain and related to the King of Portugal.

REFUSED TO WED INVALID.

Long-Distance Courtship Ends in Disappointment When Consumptive Bride Arrives.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Coming from Bristol, Va., to wed the lover whom she had never seen, but who had wooed her through a matrimonial bureau, Miss Eleanor is ill in the County Hospital, her lover having abandoned her upon her arrival here. The girl has tuberculosis, and this fact prevented her marriage, and he sent her money to come here and marry him. Upon her arrival he learned that she had consumption and refused to marry her. A stranger in a strange land, without money or friends, the girl's situation is pitiable. She was placed at the County Hospital, where she will be cared for until she can communicate with her parents in Virginia.

COL. GREENE'S CAR SEIZED.

SUIT CAUSE OF ATTACHMENT.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—The private car belonging to Col. W. C. Greene, the Canadian copper magnate, who arrived with his family from the Orient yesterday, has been seized by the Sheriff and the trip of the Greene family to the South is delayed.

The seizure was made on an attachment arising out of the suit filed against Col. Greene a few days ago by $125,000 alleged due to the plaintiff as the purchase price of certain Arizona lands sold to Col. Greene. Dr. Galt says that the seizure of the car is merely a result of a misunderstanding.

Children Watch Fire, not Knowing Mother is Dying Within.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—Mrs. J. B. Berkeley, who with her three young sons, occupied a house near Henry street, met her death this afternoon in a fire which destroyed the dwelling.

The children were out at the time looked on as the house was destroyed, not knowing that it was their mother's funeral pyre.

The husband of the unfortunate woman is a painter and is working in San Francisco. The Sheriff is endeavoring to locate him. The cause of the fire is unknown.

BITTER FIGHT OVER CUMMINS.

Forty-seven Republicans in Opposition.

Iowa Governor Replies With Caustic Words.

Democrats May Take Hand in His Election.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

DES MOINES (Iowa) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Forty-seven stand-patters refused to join the Republican Senatorial caucus today and Gov. Cummins was nominated for the United States Senate for the unexpired term by a vote of 58 to 10.

This is twenty less than the constitutional majority and the result of the caucus shows that if the stand-patters stay by their agreement the Governor will have to look for aid from the Democrats to be elected at the joint convention next Wednesday.

There are reports tonight that after voting for Porter, the Democratic candidate, for a score or so of ballots, the Democrats will either desert to vote for enough votes for Cummins to elect him Senator. The stand-patters say if Cummins is elected by direct or indirect aid of the Democrats it will prevent any possibility of his selection by the primary in November.

This morning Senator Whipple and Representative Paul, the subcommittee representing the stand-patters, called at the legislative office in the Capitol building and presented the Governor an ultimatum asking him to withdraw and threatening to bolt the caucus if he did not. They pledged him their votes if he should be chosen Senator at the State primaries in November.

CAUSTIC REPLY.

Gov. Cummins, in a caustic reply, refused to withdraw.

In 1901, when he was a candidate for Governor, he suffered at the hands of the opposition criticism and abuse such, he said, as never had been known in Iowa political life. In 1903, when he was a candidate for Governor for the third term, many of those he declared, who now demand that he eliminate himself, bolted the ticket.

Now the Legislature had called a convention to ballot for United States Senator, he went on, and he had not asked any of his friends to vote for or against him. The question was for the Republicans of the Legislature to decide, in caucus assembled, he said, and any one who bolted the caucus had, in his opinion, no regard for the party organization and violated all rules of party unity.

BOLTERS RESPONSIBLE.

"I will not yield at this time," declared the Governor, earnestly, looking the members of the committee squarely in the face, "and if the men you refer to will bolt the Republican caucus, regularly called, the responsibility for the results will rest solely with them."

Cummins' friends say if these ensue a deadlock detrimental to the success of the Republican ticket in the State fall, the one remaining hope of the stand-patters. They say the Governor is entitled to the nomination for the short term, and characterize the action of the stand-patters as revolutionary and calculated to disrupt the Republican party in the State.

State Democratic Convention Completes Its Work After Usual Row Over Platform—Many Dodge Nomination for Congress—Los Angeles Split Comes up.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

STOCKTON, Sept. 4.—With the nomination late this afternoon of ex-Mayor James D. Phelan of San Francisco as Democratic candidate for Congress, the Democratic State Convention concluded its work and adjourned. Five candidates for Congress were also nominated.

The following electors from the Congress districts were named:

First, Congress District, W. B. Sherr of Siskiyou.

Second, D. W. Carmichael of Sacramento.

Third, A. W. Malby, Concord.

Fourth, Charles Edelman, San Francisco.

Fifth, Harry P. Flannery, San Mateo.

Sixth, E. E. Felt, San Francisco.

Seventh, Thomas E. Gibbon, Los Angeles.

Eighth, John W. Martin, Tulare.

ROW OVER PLATFORM.

The Committee on Platform and Resolutions, which was in session until 3 o'clock this morning, and reconvened at 10, did not complete its draft of a platform until shortly after noon. Five hours were consumed in a spirited debate on the capital removal plank and Senator John B. Curtin's measure for the segregation of State and county taxes, which goes before the people in the coming general election in the form of a referendum amendment. Although it received the unanimous endorsement of the Republican State Convention, a circumstance regarded with suspicion and disfavor by some of those who spoke against it, the Committee on Platform and Resolutions refused to approve it, and virtually repudiated the measure.

Shortly before 12 o'clock the convention was called to order and while waiting upon the report of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions to report, Theodore A. Bell was invited to address the delegates. He spoke for an hour and a half, discussing the issues of the campaign, repudiated the designation of book of the California Democracy, applied for harmony in the Democratic ranks and pleaded that all past differences be forgotten.

APPROVE LOS ANGELES ACTION.

The convention, without debate adopted the platform as reported, also a resolution approving the action of the recent county association in Los Angeles in leading seven men out of the party.

Less than a hundred delegates were in attendance when the final action for electors-at-large were made. By the time the motion to adjourn was made, the convention hall was practically deserted, the delegates all rushing for the depot to take the 4 o'clock train.

PLATFORM IS FULL OF "ANTI" PLANKS.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

STOCKTON, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Democratic platform, adopted today, pledges support to Bryan and election of an Asiatic; readmits anti-injunction action of national convention; favors anti-trust law amendments to let labor unions escape; favors eight-hour law; declares against child labor; demands repeal of poll-tax law; pledges candidates for free text books; opposes bookmaking and pool selling at racetracks; favors submission of women's suffrage to people; demands reformatory for first offenders; declares for extension of good roads act; demands attempt to remove State capital; favors organization of national health department; denounces the Southern Pacific Railroad.

The platform calls upon voters to support the Democratic party, contains planks declaring that the primary and the election of United States Senators by direct vote; condemnation of the Southern Pacific Railroad and pledges legislative candidates to inaugurate and prosecute proceedings for the removal of the commissioners for incompetency; favors the initiative and referendum; deprecates the mismanagement of the State Redwood Park in Sequoia county; and pledges candidates for the Legislature to work for the revision of laws of criminal procedure to make administration of justice more speedy and certain.

VOTING MACHINES OUT. BALLOT TOO BIG. (ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 4.—Grave doubts exist as to whether or not counties owning voting machines will have a chance to use them at the election this fall. In answer to the question, Secretary of State Charles F. Curry frankly said he did not believe the voting machines in any county in the State, with the possible exception of Sacramento, can be used this year.

Mr. Curry said he believed that neither the number of tickets in the field or the extraordinary number of constitutional amendments to be voted upon will preclude the use of the machines in the several counties. He said he is certain the machines cannot be used in San Francisco and he believes the same would be true of Los Angeles and some of the other counties.

In Sacramento county the matter of using the machines this fall has already been discussed informally by the Board of Supervisors and unless another and at present unthought of "ticket" scheme is devised, the machines owned by the county can be used this fall.

TAFT WRITES LETTERS. LITTLE FISHING.

MIDDLEBASS ISLAND (O.) Sept. 4.—Judge Taft occupied himself assiduously with his correspondence today, the only variation being a short fishing trip in the afternoon. The increase in the number of letters received has been considerable lately and the Toledo trip precludes letter writing for a day.

Secretary Garfield had a further conference with Mr. Taft before leaving for his home today. The sketches of the speeches he is to make in Maine next week were considered.

Judge Taft will make two speeches in Sandusky, Tuesday, one at the Soldiers' Home and the other a political speech in the local theater there. The Taft party will leave here Monday night for Sandusky, going from there to Cincinnati Tuesday afternoon.

Frank H. Hitchcock will be here tomorrow.

UNRAVELING TANGLE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—The subcommittee, composed of National Committee men Ward, Dupont and Brook, appointed to consider the West Virginia gubernatorial tangle, held further consideration of the matter tonight. After the committee had adjourned Mr. Ward announced that no decision would be announced until Wednesday.

National Committeeman Duncan from North Carolina, is here for a conference with Chairman Hitchcock. He declared that North Carolina was rapidly becoming a doubtful State.

"Our State convention," said Mr. Duncan, "was one of the greatest Republican gatherings ever held in the State. We nominated a strong ticket and we expect to elect three or four members to Congress."

New England Lines Threatened by Amalgamated Association of Electric Railway Men.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

PROVIDENCE (R. I.) Sept. 4.—The executive board of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America has declared itself in favor of a general strike of the 32,000 members of the association in New England, according to a statement made here today by General Organizer William J. Walsh of Quincy, Mass.

Mr. Walsh said that delegates from fifteen divisions of the straightaway system, under the control of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railway Company, have been instructed to gather at New Haven, Ct. tomorrow to receive instructions regarding their future conduct.

The trouble started in this city when forty-four men on the Rhode Island company's street railway system, controlled by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, were discharged.

The company stated that the men were released because of a breach of discipline, but the union men claimed that the discharge was the result of the formation of a local branch of the Amalgamated association.

Mr. Walsh stated today that should a strike be declared, only the New Haven system including 7000 men would be in attendance when the final action for electors-at-large were made. By the time the motion to adjourn was made, the convention hall was practically deserted, the delegates all rushing for the depot to take the 4 o'clock train.

RAILWAY RECORD.

ROADS TO ASK FOR REHEARING.

Missouri River Rate Decision Conference Subject.

Injunction Threatened If Appeal Is Not Heard.

Commerce Commission's Act Is of Wide Effect.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Railroads affected by the famous Missouri-River rate case decision, which for the past two months has proved a source of much agitation to carriers and Chicago jobbers, will attempt to secure a rehearing of the case by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

This programme, which was decided on today at a conference of the attorneys of the interested lines, must be carried out before September 25, when the commission has ordered that the railroad rates be reduced. The order of the commission reduces the through rates to an amount less than the sum of the local rates and from the seaboard to the Missouri.

It is felt on all sides that the indirect result of the decision will be a new system of rates, which will place Chicago and St. Louis at a disadvantage with Minneapolis, St. Paul, Omaha, in the matter of rates as applied to the jobbing business.

Railroads which were not defendants in the original case brought by the Missouri River jobbers will petition the commission for a rehearing of the case. The plans mapped out at today's conference. These include the Santa Fe, Chicago, Great Western and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul.

SUES TO RECOVER LAND. TIMBER GRANTS.

PORTLAND (Ore.) Sept. 4.—Suit to recover lands granted the Oregon and Washington Railroad Company, now controlled by the Southern Pacific, and valued at over $400,000, was begun today by Special Assistant Attorney-General D. D. Townsend, on behalf of the government. The suit is based on the alleged failure of the railroad company to comply with the conditions of the grant in disposing of the lands in question. The case will be bitterly fought by the railroad corporation, for the lands involved represent some of the best timber land on the Pacific Coast, if not in the world.

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, said yesterday that while stockholders of that company will be asked at the annual meeting on October 7 to give their consent to issuing fifty million dollars of additional common stock, there is no certainty that should such consent be given, the stock will be issued in the immediate future.

"Southern Gentleman Who Had Outlived All Relatives and Friends and Is Thrown on Charity of Strangers," Applied for Shelter at Police Station in New York.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—A movement has been started to obtain the prompt release of Maj. Francis D. Walker, a Confederate veteran, from Blackwell's Island, where he was sent recently as a vagrant.

The homeless old man's commitment followed his application for a night's shelter at a police station.

Thomas Murray, a member of U. S. Gen. Post, G.A.R., became interested in the case and wrote to Edwin Owsen, the commander of the only Confederate camp in New York City, saying that he and other Grand Army men in Brooklyn stood ready to help the old Confederate veteran.

Mr. Owsen then made investigation and found that Maj. Walker appeared to be a southern gentleman who has outlived all relatives and friends and is thrown on the charity of strangers.

It has been decided to have him removed to an institution where he will receive medical attention, but if this is impossible, the Confederate camp will care for him.

WOMAN'S STORY CONFLICTING.

Mrs. Founts Gives Different Versions of the Shooting of William Barker.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN JOSE, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A coroner's jury, at an inquest this evening determined that William Barker, the ranch hand who died at the result of a gun shot wound received Wednesday, came to his death by the gun in the hands of Mrs. Founts. The testimony at the inquest threw new light on the crime or accident, which ever it was. Mrs. Founts and her husband are still detained awaiting further inquiry.

Mrs. Founts' accounts of the shooting have been conflicting. She first told the officers at the Sheriff's office that she had discharged the gun accidentally. Yesterday, she changed her story and said that she discharged the gun intentionally in the hope of frightening Barker, who, she said, was pursuing her husband with a knife.

At the inquest today she went from one story to another, contradicting herself so repeatedly that the jurors were able to give very little credit to her testimony.

INDUSTRIES INCREASING.

July Report of Statistical Bureau Shows Gain.

Heavier Live Stock Movement Than Last Year.

City Building Operations Make Advance.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Notably increased activities in the number of lines of industries of the country are shown in the July report of the Bureau of Statistics, Department of Commerce and Labor.

There is a considerably heavier live stock movement reported for the seven months ending with July than for the corresponding period of either of the two immediately preceding years.

Lumber and coal movements as well as the production of iron continue to show marked advances over the preceding months of the year, although the total is still below the heavy figures of July, 1907.

More than 70 per cent. of the reported car associations show gains over the preceding months of the current year. Live stock receipts at seven interior primary markets, aggregated 2,574,195 head.

With the returns from forty-five leading cities the building operations for July showed improvement, a small gain over the remarkably large last month of July last year being reported.

Through grain shipments of 11,633,000 bushels, for July, largely exceeded those for July of last year, the gain also showing for the thirty-one weeks ending with July. The eastbound trunk line shipments during the five weeks ended with July, was 97,077 tons.

POSTAL EMPLOYEES ADVANCED. MAKE GOOD RECORD.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—The Postoffice Department has completed the readjustment of the salaries of postoffice clerks and city letter carriers, effective July 1st, 1904, 18,751 letter carriers and 16,086 clerks being promoted.

The law provides that every clerk or letter carrier who has served for one year is eligible for advancement to the next higher grade upon evidence satisfactory to the department that his services have been faithful and efficient.

Announcement was made by the first Assistant Postmaster-General today that 234 clerks were promoted from $600 to $650, 468 from $650 to $700, 320 from $700 to $750, 278 from $750 to $800, 248 from $800 to $850, 190 from $850 to $900, 160 from $900 to $950, 100 from $950 to $1,000 and 948 from $1,000 to $1,050.

The large percentage of clerks and carriers promoted and the very small percentage of promotions withheld on account of unsatisfactory service is exceedingly gratifying to the department, as it indicates a high degree of efficiency in the postal service. The slight difference in percentage in favor of the clerks in the $1,000 grade to $1,050, is due to the fact that a number of the clerks in the $1,000 grade to $1,050, are promoted in memorizing distribution schemes.

Second, Third and Fourth-Class Matter Handled in One Day Amounts to 292.3 Tons—Sending Out of Catalogues for Fall Trade Explains Increase.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prosperity is once more coming upon Chicago as evidenced by the fact that all records of the Chicago postoffice were broken yesterday in the handling of second, third and fourth class mail, according to a report made public by Postmaster D. Campbell.

The postmaster's report. The weight of mail other than first class handled by the postoffice employees yesterday was 223.3 tons. The largest weight of similar classes ever handled in the local postoffice was 238.3 tons, November 23, 1898.

Postal literature helped to make up part of yesterday's huge total, according to Postmaster Campbell. Many annual fall catalogues, of which thousands are sent to all parts of the country, formed the bulk of the mail, but even the regular September rush due to the printing of fall catalogues was increased.

The tonnage for the same four days of September, 1907, shows that an increase of 34 per cent. has been made this year. In addition to breaking the record of the local postoffice in second, third and fourth class mail, new figures will be established on first-class mail before the month is over.

BANK CASHIERS INDICTED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—After several days of intermittent investigation into the affairs of the defunct Bank of California, the grand jury today returned indictments against A. F. Martel, president of the bank; W. Nash, a former cashier and director of the institution, and L. B. Haven, the cashier who succeeded Nash. The indictments charge the return of a false report to the bank commissioners, Martel, Nash and Haven are in custody, under bonds of $10,000 in each case.

OBITUARY.

Oliver Dalrymple.

ST. PAUL, Sept. 4.—Word was received here last night that Oliver Dalrymple, who was killed at the "Banza Wheat Farmer," of North Dakota, died at his ranch at Casselton, N. D. The cause of death was given as heart disease, superinduced by old age.

The Dalrymple farm consisted of 17 sections, embracing 16,500 acres.

Emanuel Mandel.

CHICAGO, Sept. 4.—Emanuel Mandel, first vice-president of Mandel Brothers, and one of Chicago's most successful merchants, died last night at Basle, Switzerland, according to a dispatch received here today. Death was due to a stroke of paralysis.

Capt. Robert Sudden.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 4.—Capt. Robert Sudden, the founder of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, died at his residence in this city today from an attack of heart disease. He was 76 years old and a native of Scotland. He retired from active service about thirty-five years ago.

Capt. Sudden came West from the Atlantic Coast in 1850 and was master of the first steamer which ran on this Coast, the Salinas.

Alexander Troup.

NEW YORK, Sept. 4.—Alexander Troup, Democratic national committeeman from Connecticut and editor of the New Haven Union, died suddenly here tonight.

MARQUIS INDOUE NO BETTER.

TOKIO, Sept. 4.—The condition of Marquis Inouye, former Minister of Foreign Affairs in Prince Ito's cabinet, who has been critically ill for some time, shows no improvement. No hope of his ultimate recovery is entertained.

Bought the Entire Shoe Stock

E. K. McKelly Co., Azusa
At About 60c on the Dollar

The power of ready cash again demonstrated in Broadway merchandising. Undoubtedly the newest and snappiest lot of shoes that was ever purchased at such a price. True, it was not an extensive stock, but thoroughly good all through. To make buying more important we added several of our own lines to make the assortments complete. This will enable us to make a series of phenomenal prices in just the shoes you want. We've engaged plenty of extra salespeople to wait on you promptly.

Women's Shoes and Oxfords
$3, $4 and Even $5 Values..... $2.39

The very newest fall styles in high shoes that are worth $3.50, $4.00 and even $5.00. Gunmetal or dull finished kids as well as bright patent coltskin.

Oxfords worth $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00, in tan Russia calf or dark shades of brown kid. Also black kid or patent leathers. All sizes and widths in most remarkable collection. Price, $2.39.

Women's $2.50 and $3.00
Shoes and Oxfords..... $1.69

Rich styles in black and tan kid, patent color or dull leathers. A wonderful gathering; shoes that are suitable for school or dress wear; styles for women and misses; $2.50 and $3 lines—the entire stock of E. K. McKelly Co. You will profit by an early trip to this sale. It's a ridiculous price for the quality of the shoes.

Women's $1.50 Oxfords and Slippers..... 79c

Many styles to choose from; also lots of odds and ends in high shoes that sold up to $2.50. As long as they last today, pair, 79c.

Men's $3.50 to $5.00 Shoes and Oxfords..... $2.48

McKelly's entire stock, together with many lines from a big Eastern factory. All desirable styles, shapes and leathers; both high and low cut, Goodyear welted soles, in blucher, lace or button lasts. They are all new fall goods. Many of them never out of their original cartons. Plenty of sizes and widths.

McKelly's $2.50 and $3
Shoes and Oxfords for Men $1.98

Standard lines of regular $2.50 and $3.00 oxfords. Perfect fitting lasts in blucher and lace styles, patent cut and box calf and kid; many with Goodyear welted soles. They are fully up to the Broadway standard of quality, and we consider them phenomenal values at $1.98, the sale price. There is a good range of sizes.

Men's $2.00 and $2.50
Shoes and Oxfords..... $1.48

For men—tan Russia calf or patent coltskin oxfords, or high shoes, in satin calf or patent. All sizes. $1.48 pair.

TROOPS TO RESCUE.

intimations. We are conducting no private negotiations. What we are doing is in the general interest of all the powers. After Mulai Hand is recognized we are confident that we will be able to take care of ourselves."

The German attempt to make it appear that France some time ago sent a consular official like Dr. Vassel to Fez also is officially repudiated. It is explained that the man France sent to Fez was a native of Algeria, whose mission was simply to act as custodian of the valuable French archives there. He was in no sense a consul like Dr. Vassel.

GETS NEW COURAGE.

France is still awaiting Spain's approval of the joint note before communicating to the powers.

A special dispatch says that Abdel-Aziz has received a message from his lieutenant, Tougui, announcing his victory over the force of Mulai Hand and his subsequent occupation of Morocco City. As a consequence, Abdel-Aziz has abandoned his idea of relinquishing the struggle.

Tougui's letter is couched in the most vigorous terms. He says: "Even if you have nothing but a shirt to your back, do not lose confidence. Await at the bank of the Rebia River. I will come and seek you."

DEFEAT FOR MULAI.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) TANGIER, Sept. 4.—Advices received here from Morocco City report that Tougui on August 28 defeated the forces under Glaouao, a lieutenant of Mulai Hand, at a point three hours distant from the city.

There was a desperate battle, in which the followers of Glaouao were 500 men killed. Glaouao was injured and he had three horses shot under him.

Later reports say that the butchery was terrible.

Mulai Hand is urgently seeking reinforcements.

TOUGUI CRUSHED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) TANGIER, Sept. 4.—Letters received here from Morocco City, dated August 27, report that Tougui was completely crushed by Glaouao at Mtif, twenty kilometers from Morocco City. They say that Tougui's brother, he commanded in the absence of Tougui, was made a prisoner.

YOSEMITE VALLEY SPORTS.

San Francisco Olympic Club to Introduce Ice Skating and Tobogganing in Winter.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.) MERCED (Cal.) Sept. 4.—It has been announced that the Olympic Club of San Francisco is to arrange for winter sports in Yosemite Valley.

Eight members of the club visited the valley last week to look over the ground with this idea in view. The sports contemplated are ice skating, sleighing and perhaps a toboggan slide made of snow. The club members who made the trip also figure on establishing a lodge or clubhouse in the valley that would be headquarters for club members visiting in Yosemite.

An excursion will be run by the Olympic Club to the valley in October, when further steps will be taken to arrange for the winter sports. Now that Yosemite is open all the year, there is much interest in the winter travel which promises to be quite heavy.

RAWHIDE BURNED.

Hill properties and the Grutt Boya business office, the loss amounting to $10,000, which is the extent of the damage done to the mining properties.

One of the first telegrams sent out was an order for lumber for the construction of six buildings and plans were well under way for the reconstruction of the town before the ashes were thoroughly cool.

GOLDFIELD SENDS TRAINLOAD.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.) GOLDFIELD, Sept. 4.—A relief train of five cars, loaded with clothing and provisions, left here for Rawhide some time tonight. Automobiles sent ahead on flat cars will be used to transport supplies from Mina to the burned mining camp. Three cars loaded with goods were added to the train at Tonopah. The supply train is expected to reach Rawhide some time tonight. Tomorrow morning another special train will probably be dispatched with supplies.

GOLDFIELD IS PROMPT.

SENDS RELIEF TO RAWHIDE.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) GOLDFIELD (Nev.) Sept. 4.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The response of Goldfield to the news that Rawhide was in flames was similar to that of April, 1906, when Goldfield's aid in the form of ready cash was the first to reach San Francisco.

A number of leading men of Rawhide were here and they were called upon to aid with advice as to the best means of relieving the people of the stricken camp.

Meetings were called and committees appointed to solicit supplies and funds and within an hour the big touring car of James E. Keely was on the road closely followed by Tom D. Murphy's car, both loaded down with provisions and hospital supplies.

Early in the evening a special train furnished by Manager Hanlin of the Tonopah and Goldfield road pulled out for the camp. It had a refrigerator car loaded with provisions, clothing, bedding and tents, three flat cars carrying seven automobiles for transporting supplies from the railroad to Rawhide and the whole was in charge of Tom D. Murphy of Combination Fraction fame.

Every owner of an automobile in Goldfield tendered its use to the committees. It is estimated, not counting cash, the expense involved thus far in goods, provisions, employees, etc., devoted to relief cause will total nearly $10,000. The cash fund will approach $5000.

Another special goes out tomorrow and committees will send all kinds of supplies, chiefly provisions and bedding. The State has been appealed to for 250 tents stored at Carson. A giant mass meeting will be held tomorrow to raise funds for relief.

WOMEN TO WEAR HONOR SWEATERS.

BERKELEY, Sept. 1.—The Executive Committee of the Associated Students of the University of California yesterday voted to permit the women students of the university to wear the big "C" given to college men who represent the university in track and field meets. This is the first time in the history of the institution that women students have been allowed to wear the coveted insignia of athletic merit. The new rule goes into effect at once.

GREAT PACING BY MINOR HEIR.

GOES MILE IN FRACTION OVER TWO-MINUTE MARK.

Duffie Wins Two Heats With Zomalt, but Loses Race by One Point in Five Heats in the Minneapolis Trot-Brace First Takes First Money in Feature.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES] MINNEAPOLIS (Minn.) Sept. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In perfect weather and on a track lightning fast, the heir of the Minnesota State Fair track today, his record made at Galesburg, Ill., three weeks ago.

The phenomenal cherry heat, son of Heir, Law, started to beat the unbeaten record of two minutes and the quarter in 2:15, the half in 5:15, the three-quarters in 7:15 and the mile in 10:15.

The unbeaten record for track was made by Dan Patch four years ago in a record time of 1:59. The unbeaten record is held by Star Pointer and Auditor Boy, 1:59 1/4.

The race program of the afternoon was an especially interesting one. Mary Mac carried away most of the money in the 2:15 trot, by taking two of the 2:21, 2:22, 2:23, 2:24, 2:25, 2:26, 2:27, 2:28, 2:29, 2:30, 2:31, 2:32, 2:33, 2:34, 2:35, 2:36, 2:37, 2:38, 2:39, 2:40, 2:41, 2:42, 2:43, 2:44, 2:45, 2:46, 2:47, 2:48, 2:49, 2:50, 2:51, 2:52, 2:53, 2:54, 2:55, 2:56, 2:57, 2:58, 2:59, 3:00, 3:01, 3:02, 3:03, 3:04, 3:05, 3:06, 3:07, 3:08, 3:09, 3:10, 3:11, 3:12, 3:13, 3:14, 3:15, 3:16, 3:17, 3:18, 3:19, 3:20, 3:21, 3:22, 3:23, 3:24, 3:25, 3:26, 3:27, 3:28, 3:29, 3:30, 3:31, 3:32, 3:33, 3:34, 3:35, 3:36, 3:37, 3:38, 3:39, 3:40, 3:41, 3:42, 3:43, 3:44, 3:45, 3:46, 3:47, 3:48, 3:49, 3:50, 3:51, 3:52, 3:53, 3:54, 3:55, 3:56, 3:57, 3:58, 3:59, 4:00, 4:01, 4:02, 4:03, 4:04, 4:05, 4:06, 4:07, 4:08, 4:09, 4:10, 4:11, 4:12, 4:13, 4:14, 4:15, 4:16, 4:17, 4:18, 4:19, 4:20, 4:21, 4:22, 4:23, 4:24, 4:25, 4:26, 4:27, 4:28, 4:29, 4:30, 4:31, 4:32, 4:33, 4:34, 4:35, 4:36, 4:37, 4:38, 4:39, 4:40, 4:41, 4:42, 4:43, 4:44, 4:45, 4:46, 4:47, 4:48, 4:49, 4:50, 4:51, 4:52, 4:53, 4:54, 4:55, 4:56, 4:57, 4:58, 4:59, 5:00, 5:01, 5:02, 5:03, 5:04, 5:05, 5:06, 5:07, 5:08, 5:09, 5:10, 5:11, 5:12, 5:13, 5:14, 5:15, 5:16, 5:17, 5:18, 5:19, 5:20, 5:21, 5:22, 5:23, 5:24, 5:25, 5:26, 5:27, 5:28, 5:29, 5:30, 5:31, 5:32, 5:33, 5:34, 5:35, 5:36, 5:37, 5:38, 5:39, 5:40, 5:41, 5:42, 5:43, 5:44, 5:45, 5:46, 5:47, 5:48, 5:49, 5:50, 5:51, 5:52, 5:53, 5:54, 5:55, 5:56, 5:57, 5:58, 5:59, 6:00, 6:01, 6:02, 6:03, 6:04, 6:05, 6:06, 6:07, 6:08, 6:09, 6:10, 6:11, 6:12, 6:13, 6:14, 6:15, 6:16, 6:17, 6:18, 6:19, 6:20, 6:21, 6:22, 6:23, 6:24, 6:25, 6:26, 6:27, 6:28, 6:29, 6:30, 6:31, 6:32, 6:33, 6:34, 6:35, 6:36, 6:37, 6:38, 6:39, 6:40, 6:41, 6:42, 6:43, 6:44, 6:45, 6:46, 6:47, 6:48, 6:49, 6:50, 6:51, 6:52, 6:53, 6:54, 6:55, 6:56, 6:57, 6:58, 6:59, 7:00, 7:01, 7:02, 7:03, 7:04, 7:05, 7:06, 7:07, 7:08, 7:09, 7:10, 7:11, 7:12, 7:13, 7:14, 7:15, 7:16, 7:17, 7:18, 7:19, 7:20, 7:21, 7:22, 7:23, 7:24, 7:25, 7:26, 7:27, 7:28, 7:29, 7:30, 7:31, 7:32, 7:33, 7:34, 7:35, 7:36, 7:37, 7:38, 7:39, 7:40, 7:41, 7:42, 7:43, 7:44, 7:45, 7:46, 7:47, 7:48, 7:49, 7:50, 7:51, 7:52, 7:53, 7:54, 7:55, 7:56, 7:57, 7:58, 7:59, 8:00, 8:01, 8:02, 8:03, 8:04, 8:05, 8:06, 8:07, 8:08, 8:09, 8:10, 8:11, 8:12, 8:13, 8:14, 8:15, 8:16, 8:17, 8:18, 8:19, 8:20, 8:21, 8:22, 8:23, 8:24, 8:25, 8:26, 8:27, 8:28, 8:29, 8:30, 8:31, 8:32, 8:33, 8:34, 8:35, 8:36, 8:37, 8:38, 8:39, 8:40, 8:41, 8:42, 8:43, 8:44, 8:45, 8:46, 8:47, 8:48, 8:49, 8:50, 8:51, 8:52, 8:53, 8:54, 8:55, 8:56, 8:57, 8:58, 8:59, 9:00, 9:01, 9:02, 9:03, 9:04, 9:05, 9:06, 9:07, 9:08, 9:09, 9:10, 9:11, 9:12, 9:13, 9:14, 9:15, 9:16, 9:17, 9:18, 9:19, 9:20, 9:21, 9:22, 9:23, 9:24, 9:25, 9:26, 9:27, 9:28, 9:29, 9:30, 9:31, 9:32, 9:33, 9:34, 9:35, 9:36, 9:37, 9:38, 9:39, 9:40, 9:41, 9:42, 9:43, 9:44, 9:45, 9:46, 9:47, 9:48, 9:49, 9:50, 9:51, 9:52, 9:53, 9:54, 9:55, 9:56, 9:57, 9:58, 9:59, 10:00, 10:01, 10:02, 10:03, 10:04, 10:05, 10:06, 10:07, 10:08, 10:09, 10:10, 10:11, 10:12, 10:13, 10:14, 10:15, 10:16, 10:17, 10:18, 10:19, 10:20, 10:21, 10:22, 10:23, 10:24, 10:25, 10:26, 10:27, 10:28, 10:29, 10:30, 10:31, 10:32, 10:33, 10:34, 10:35, 10:36, 10:37, 10:38, 10:39, 10:40, 10:41, 10:42, 10:43, 10:44, 10:45, 10:46, 10:47, 10:48, 10:49, 10:50, 10:51, 10:52, 10:53, 10:54, 10:55, 10:56, 10:57, 10:58, 10:59, 11:00, 11:01, 11:02, 11:03, 11:04, 11:05, 11:06, 11:07, 11:08, 11:09, 11:10, 11:11, 11:12, 11:13, 11:14, 11:15, 11:16, 11:17, 11:18, 11:19, 11:20, 11:21, 11:22, 11:23, 11:24, 11:25, 11:26, 11:27, 11:28, 11:29, 11:30, 11:31, 11:32, 11:33, 11:34, 11:35, 11:36, 11:37, 11:38, 11:39, 11:40, 11:41, 11:42, 11:43, 11:44, 11:45, 11:46, 11:47, 11:48, 11:49, 11:50, 11:51, 11:52, 11:53, 11:54, 11:55, 11:56, 11:57, 11:58, 11:59, 12:00, 12:01, 12:02, 12:03, 12:04, 12:05, 12:06, 12:07, 12:08, 12:09, 12:10, 12:11, 12:12, 12:13, 12:14, 12:15, 12:16, 12:17, 12:18, 12:19, 12:20, 12:21, 12:22, 12:23, 12:24, 12:25, 12:26, 12:27, 12:28, 12:29, 12:30, 12:31, 12:32, 12:33, 12:34, 12:35, 12:36, 12:37, 12:38, 12:39, 12:40, 12:41, 12:42, 12:43, 12:44, 12:45, 12:46, 12:47, 12:48, 12:49, 12:50, 12:51, 12:52, 12:53, 12:54, 12:55, 12:56, 12:57, 12:58, 12:59, 13:00, 13:01, 13:02, 13:03, 13:04, 13:05, 13:06, 13:07, 13:08, 13:09, 13:10, 13:11, 13:12, 13:13, 13:14, 13:15, 13:16, 13:17, 13:18, 13:19, 13:20, 13:21, 13:22, 13:23, 13:24, 13:25, 13:26, 13:27, 13:28, 13:29, 13:30, 13:31, 13:32, 13:33, 13:34, 13:35, 13:36, 13:37, 13:38, 13:39, 13:40, 13:41, 13:42

HEARTACHE NUMBER TWO.

Miss Evans Had Another Breach of Promise Case.

Followed Fickle Man Across the Wide Ocean.

Springer Knows Her Interesting Career—Now!

According to the standards set by Miss Mary M. Evans in her suit against W. Curtis Springer for breach of promise, a second breach is worth only two-fifths of what the first is. For Miss Evans came to Los Angeles a few months ago fresh from a compromise in her first breach of promise case, in which she asked $25,000 damages from Dr. W. M. Springer, formerly of Salt Lake City, but now resident of San Francisco. She is asking only $10,000 from Springer.

Those who know Miss Evans are surprised that she should again break her heart for a fickle man, after the painful wounds so recently bared to the Third District Court of Utah had scarcely healed. But it seems that Miss Evans is getting a habit of irresistibly falling in and out of love.

Yesterday Springer resigned his position of teller at the Southern Trust Company, wishing to relieve that institution until the suit is determined. It will make no compromise, it is announced, and will continue the suit, for he has learned who and what Miss Evans was before she came to Los Angeles.

SOCIAL EARTHQUAKE.

Her suit against Dr. McEnery was filed in Salt Lake City last November, and proved a social earthquake. Not only her suit, but her story aroused much prejudice against Dr. McEnery in his wife's family, and led to his resignation, under fire, as the co-guardian of his dead wife's daughter.

While in Salt Lake City, Dr. McEnery, who was a member of the city board of health, was accused of having been a party to the death of a woman who was in his care. He was accused of having been a party to the death of a woman who was in his care.

It was at Nice, too, at the same time that Mrs. Charles Laughlin, a wealthy lawyer and mine owner of Park City, Utah, met and liked Dr. McEnery. Laughlin was a young man, and Dr. McEnery, though young, was a man of mature years. They fell in love with her, and they were married. This was about two years ago.

WAITING FOR MCKENRY.

Returning to this country, Dr. McEnery and his wife took up their residence in San Francisco. About a year ago Mrs. McEnery died suddenly and was taken back to Salt Lake City for burial.

Soon after her burial it became known that Miss Evans was working as a nurse in Salt Lake City and was waiting for Dr. McEnery to get word of the jurisdiction of the Utah courts that she might serve summons on him in a breach of promise action. While there she gained the sympathy of members of the Laughlin family, and as a result of her zeal Dr. McEnery was summoned to answer a petition for his removal as co-guardian of his stepdaughter. The court guardian was the child's uncle, Prof. Laughlin, of Ann Arbor, Mich. Dr. McEnery resigned when the matter was brought up in court, and this terminated the proceeding.

But before he could get out of the State he was served with a summons to answer a charge of breach of promise. Miss Evans was then in the city, and she was the one who served the summons on him. She was the one who served the summons on him.

Dr. McEnery denied her accusations and asserted that she was merely trying to force him to pay damages. Nothing more was heard of the case until last spring, when it was settled out of court. It was understood that the time that Miss Evans got $20,000 to terminate the affair.

SYMPATHY STIRRED.

At Salt Lake City Miss Evans represented herself as a lone girl who had followed the man who wronged her across the sea, and whose death was so pitiful that it aroused the sympathy of his own family and that of his dead wife's for her. She declared that Mrs. McEnery had known her story and had generously sympathized with her. Public sympathy was aroused in her favor and Dr. McEnery got a little more than his share of public censure. To have tried the case in the courts of Utah would mean a long, tedious wait for depositions from England, and Dr. McEnery cut across lots and compromised.

After Miss Evans came here, her friends said she sought employment as a nurse and finally found a position at the Southern California Hospital for the Insane at Patton. She came back to the city several weeks ago only to have her heart again broken, as she alleges, to the extent of $10,000.

SAY HE DIDN'T KNOW.

Springer's friends assert that he knew very little of the girl and that her story of a promise and its breach is a wholesale fabrication. They say that until after her suit had been filed he knew anything of her Utah career. Now that his attorneys have learned of this romance of the doctor, they are sure the young woman has jumped a little too boldly into the arena with her second case of afflicted affection.

Miss Evans is a pretty girl, bold and "classy," with a predilection for the histrionic and terpsichorean. Recently she has been studying with a view of beginning a famous career on the vaudeville stage.

Vice-President Burke of the Southern Trust Company declined to discuss the case yesterday, but in Justice Springer, gave out a copy of the latter's resignation, in which he said: "I can assure you that I am innocent of the charges mentioned in the complaint brought against me, and that I can establish my innocence when the case comes to trial; but pending the trial, I would not wish to be unjust to the bank and the bank officers to do otherwise than as indicated above."

"I thoroughly appreciate every consideration shown me and ask your kindly indulgence until the facts are fully established."

MAY RECOVER MONEY LOST.

DISHONESTY IN POSTOFFICE IS COVERED BY BOND.

There is an excellent chance, according to a high postal official, that many firms and individuals may recover the money alleged to have been stolen from letters by Harry W. Sikes, the former postoffice employee who was recently arrested.

Sikes is under bond of $100, and although there may be legal quibbles raised, it now appears that, in accordance with a settled policy in this class of cases, the government will use this bond to cover the nefarious work of which the negro is accused. Such claims as are proven and chargeable to dishonesty will eventually be paid from various parts of the country, as well as from this city, local authorities are receiving reports of losses of money from letters that passed through the Los Angeles office.

The number of offerings already accounted for through confessions made by Sikes, and through other information now in possession of the government, will make a large hole in the bond; but there is understood to be a margin over all reported losses.

From various parts of the country, letters have been received that contained marked bills and were deposited by Inspectors Knox, Webster and Warren. The prisoner was arraigned before United States Commissioner W. C. Miller, who was unable to furnish the $2500 bond demanded, he was committed to the County Jail.

Belboy Tells of Getting Drink for Policeman Who Didn't Wait for It.

It was shortly after the midnight hour on Broadway, Charles Worrell, head bellman at the Alexandria, was hurrying homeward. As he passed Mercantile Place a man in policeman's uniform halted him and asked who he was and why he was abroad at that hour.

Worrell was held up about six months ago, and robbed of $50 in cash and a meal ticket. He is still nervous because of that experience, and when the policeman halted him he was frightened, but his answer to questions was convincing, and he was allowed to go. As he was hurrying away, the officer again stopped him and said:

"Say, kid, slip into that saloon and get me a drink of whiskey."

"I can't do it," replied Worrell. "I am broke, and any way they would not give me any booze to carry out here."

"If you are broke take this club and show it to the barkeep and he will give you what you ask for," said the policeman.

Worrell took the club, entered the saloon, demanded a drink, and got it. When he returned to the street with the liquor, there was no policeman in sight. He dashed the whiskey glass to the sidewalk and fled.

LIVELY TOUR OF BOOSTING.

Party of Forty-eight Will Start Out Today.

Going to Denver to Elevate Local Engineer.

Three Hundred Give a Send-Off to Fischer.

Three hundred persons attended the reception given last night at Eagles' Hall in honor of Fred J. Fischer, who is slated for the presidency of the National Association of Stationary Engineers, and his fellow-delegates to the national convention, which will be held at Denver from the 8th to the 11th inst. The function was a great success, and the delegates were given a fine send-off.

Fischer, who is chief mechanical engineer of the City-Water Department, is the vice-president of the national association, and according to the unwritten law of the organization, is assured of election to the presidency at the coming gathering. He carries with him the solid support of the entire California delegation.

The delegates will leave today at 10 o'clock over the Salt Lake route. The local organization, California Association of Stationary Engineers No. 2 of Los Angeles, sends eight delegates, while the delegations from other parts of the State will bring California's representation up to twenty.

The delegates from this city are: Fred J. Fischer, C. F. Miller, S. A. Barrett, T. P. Royer, W. H. Traster, W. T. C. C. J. F. Connell and William P. Stevens.

The chairman of last evening was Gabriel Allen, president of the local association. Speeches were delivered by Fred J. Fischer, W. T. C. C. J. F. Connell and Gabriel Allen.

After the speaking the chairs were cleared from the floor of the hall and an informal dancing party was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served and the evening's entertainment to a close.

THEY'RE AWAKE.

Many of the delegates to the national convention will be accompanied by their wives, and there will be forty-eight in the party which leaves today. A brass band of twelve players will be taken to help boom things, and the California delegations are going with the determination to show that this State is very much awake.

Up to last year there had never been an officer of the general association elected from west of the Mississippi River. The California delegation started out with the intention of electing one of its own number as vice-president, but the choice of Fischer was the result. Fischer was elected over Charles Strong, the opposition candidate from Ohio, by a vote of 255.

Local members of the association are intensely enthusiastic over the prospect of having one of their own elected to the highest office in the national body. The association now numbers 22,000 members, of whom 1000 are located in California. There are now eight subordinate associations in California. The local organization is the largest, numbering 425 members, but few less than the banner association of the country, that at Chicago.

FOR PROMOTENCY.

The object of the National Association of Stationary Engineers is to increase the proficiency of the men who follow the craft. It takes no part in any disputes between employer and employee, but simply aims to make the employees as skillful as possible.

Before an engineer can become a member of the association he is forced to pass a very strict examination, demonstrating that he is a fully qualified mechanical engineer. The local association numbers among its members practically all of the chief mechanical engineers of this city.

Fischer, the next president, is a native Californian, having been born in San Francisco, in 1860, when he was but 2 years old, his parents moved to Anaheim, and since that time he has been a resident of this part of the State.

In 1888, Fischer moved to Los Angeles and became the head mechanical engineer of the old Citizens' Water Company. He has remained in the employ ever since, having been elevated to the important position of chief mechanical engineer of the water department when it was acquired by the city.

HOTEL GUESTS ENTERTAINED.

The guests of Hotel Ingraham were entertained with an informal musicale and dancing party Thursday evening by the manager, Bernard Beyer. A band of strolling minstrels furnished the music for the evening and a jolly good time was enjoyed. Several ballads were rendered by Archibald Ralston, the Italian singer.

NEAR SIX THOUSAND COLONISTS ARRIVE.

YESTERDAY was a busy day for the local railway officials. The first of the colonists to take advantage of the special transcontinental rates arrived, and for several hours the stations were thronged. It is estimated that nearly 6000 stepped off the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Salt Lake overland trains during the day.

The 8:30 o'clock train, over the Santa Fe, was the first to bring in any considerable number of colonists. There were fourteen sleeping cars attached to this train, in addition to several regular staterooms, and every section and seat was taken.

Five minutes after the first section of the train pulled up at the platform the colonists were thronging the platform in front of the station with humanity. Attaches of the station were kept busy answering questions, and there was a regular stampede for the trolley cars.

At the Salt Lake station the same scene was enacted, though there was not quite so large a throng as at La Grande. All of the cars on the overland were packed, however.

The first train to arrive on the Southern Pacific was the overland via the southern route. It was due at 11:30 o'clock, but was a little late, and it was well past 12 before the long blast of the engine whistle told that it was entering the switching yards.

There was a quick rush for the platform, and soon the arriving colonists were greeted by hundreds of waiting friends.

After 2:30 o'clock the Southern Pacific train over the northern route pulled in. Several extra sleeping cars had been called into service, but it was plainly evident that there was none too much room, and that the company's officials had not overestimated the demand for accommodations.

Nearly all of those who arrived here yesterday are from points west of the Missouri River. One of the noteworthy features was the good humor of the travelers. All agreed that they had reached California under the most promising conditions, and many comments were made on the manner in which the railroads had handled the traffic.

As many colonists as came yesterday, and likely more, will arrive today. A large proportion of them are coming from points east of Chicago. The Atlantic seaboard being largely represented.

Late advices at the local railroad office lead to the belief that the immigration during this month and October will break all records. All of the west-bound trains are heavily loaded, and late arrivals from the East say that California is as much the topic of conversation this year as it was during the gold excitement of '49.

BRAINS NOT HEREDITARY.

The mental acumen of John D. Rockefeller is a fact about which there is no dispute. Close students of human life have long ago reached the conclusion that genius is never transmitted to a second generation. All biographies, from those of David to Homer, Alexander, Caesar, Virgil, Cicero, Horace, on to Charlemagne, Charles V. of Spain, to Churchill, Cromwell, Bonaparte, Milton, Shakespeare, including statesmen, orators, poets, artists, soldiers, show that men of genius leave to no heirs their marvelous gifts.

But it has been generally held that these studies do show that talent is usually transmitted to the next generation. Many of the admirers of the great industrial captain of this generation have maintained that his is the gift of genius. It is contended that the greatest millionaire of the world might have been the greatest soldier, or the greatest poet, had he turned his efforts in one of these directions. One writer is bold in the assertion that Rockefeller could have written Shakespeare. Many have thought they could do this if they had "had a mind to." Manifestly in most cases the mind was not present. This is the sufficient explanation of there being only one "Hamlet" extant.

But if mere talent, no matter how high its order, is transmitted to the offspring of the man of talent, then the Standard Oil wizard is not a man of talent. He has transmitted no remarkable amount of talent to any of his offspring.

This fact is made plain to all who come in close contact with the younger members of the family. Some are said to be decidedly born in their gifts, and the best are only a good average. These latest days bring to light decided evidence that there is much mental deficiency among the heirs to the magnum's millions who are not heirs to his mentality. They are paying out many of John D.'s carefully hoarded shakels to an expert in genealogies and heraldry to dig up out of the graveyards of Europe the bones of the supposititious forebears of the Rockefeller family. The expert, as befits him, has found "the goods."

There is a Rockefeller Association, with headquarters at Albany. Various men and women bearing the name belong. They "enthus" over the discovery of some old bones found in the south of France bearing the name Rockefeller. The "enthusiasm knows no bounds" when it is announced that some of these long-lost Rockefellers were barons. But no brains which bear any resemblance to those of John D. have yet been exhumed. These barons in the south of France seem to have been very barren of notable deeds, or the search need not have gone so far as the legends on tombstones.

But our old friend John D. is not afflicted with softening of the brain yet. There is not a sign of mental decay. He holds no office in the Rockefeller Association, nor does he seem to be a member. John D. goes to the oil fields for a patent of nobility, not to a graveyard. He will leave a fame self-made behind him, and need not go to France for it.

PEACE ON EARTH.

It is the longest cry in human history from the bludgeon of Cain, dyed crimson with a brother's blood, to the battleship fleet of the youngest of the nations circumnavigating the earth grown gray and wrinkled with the suns and frosts, the earthquakes and the tidal waves of the long, long centuries.

And through them all man's dominant trait has been war, and his occupation beating plowshares into spears and pruning hooks into swords. Not an age, hardly a year, but "Red Battle" has stamped his foot, and poor humanity has run covering to cover as doves before the eagle. The great men of history, as it stands recorded, are the Xerxes, the Alexanders, the Caesars, the Napoleons. The "city sacker" has been a coveted sobriquet among all men.

But a day long promised is coming—slowly, but surely. We are told that in the golden age of history the spears are to be bent back into plowshares and the swords into pruning hooks, and then men shall not learn war any more. It is coming, and it will arrive in time.

Here lies Russia, a great, populous empire, full of rich resources, which for centuries has shed the blood of its people in war, struggling to gain a seaport from which commerce might be carried on, and protected with a fleet of battleships. Hundreds of thousands have gone down to untimely death in that conflict, and millions of treasure have been wasted in plowshares converted into spears and pruning hooks into swords. The development of the nation has been held back for centuries in this needless strife.

Here is Germany, another great empire, now engaged in a similar struggle to build up an overseas commerce, and wasting millions in building war vessels to protect her merchant ships.

An ancient people, gray with centuries of time, which has been stagnating in the weeds of semi-barbarism, awakes on the islands along the coast of Asia, and becomes, as it were, a new-born nation. They are ambitious for trade, driven by their narrow bounds and sterile soil to seek wealth beyond seas, and their first work is to spend millions out of their general poverty to construct a navy to protect their commerce.

Why cannot the nations learn to live in harmony as neighbors do? Cain killed his brother to get rid of a rival. And all Adam's sons to our time have had the devilish idea that the world was not wide enough for all. Killing rivals has been the great business of us all. Persia tried to kill off Greece. Rome killed Carthage. Spain attempted to check the commercial ambition of England. All Europe has combined to keep Russia bottled up, and Germany is afraid she may not enjoy her overseas trade unless able to defend it with guns. Surely human civilization has made great headway, and is something to be proud of.

But light is breaking. Germany has learned that the mailed fist would better wear a kid glove, and that rattling a sword is not gooder than good diplomacy. Japan is so taxed preparing for a war that may never come that the conclusion is reached that the game costs too many candles. The Kaiser has taken to preaching peace, and the Mikado has called a halt in building battleships.

The nations should take a vacation from the schools in which they learn war, and sit down and think quietly over the proposition that with peoples as with persons, the true philosophy of life is to live and let live. If there were not so much of Cain's blood in the veins of most of us, it would be understood that the seas are the common heritage of all, that trade should be free, that honest rivalry for business is as good a method for nations as for neighbors.

That is coming. There will be a "parliament of man," a federation of the world, in which the rights of all will be recognized. There will be an international police force to patrol the high seas and protect the merchant ships of all nations from aggression on the part of any nation. In that good day the aggressor among the family of nations will be dealt with as the aggressor in any community. We shall have an international penitentiary, where the pirates will be shut up.

In that good day of peace on earth, one fleet such as we are now sending around the earth will be enough for all the nations. Then Russia, Germany, Japan and all other nations may carry on their overseas commerce with no one to make them afraid. All nations will save millions upon millions every year now spent in bending plowshares into spears and pruning hooks into swords. Men shall learn war no more, but devote all their time and talents to agriculture, manufactures and commerce. The plane of living will be as high as the stars of heaven compared with what it is now, when so much is wasted in war and preparation for war.

Not merely money will be saved, but so will the blood of the sons of men, and the pangs of sorrow that wring the hearts of the daughters of Eve as they see their first-born crimson with gore. And the tears of the widow and the destitute mothers will no longer mingle with the blood of the slain on the battlefields of peoples who falsely boast of their civilization.

THE BIG TREES SAVED.

It is worth more in money to the people of California that the grove of giant redwood trees in the Sierras, which were threatened by fire, have been saved, than all the gold output of all the mines of this State this year, "and then some." These giant sequoias are among the most interesting things on the face of the earth. They are to California what the ruins of castles and cathedrals are to Europe. They draw to the State innumerable tourists.

"A HOME RUN."

pared with what it is now, when so much is wasted in war and preparation for war.

Not merely money will be saved, but so will the blood of the sons of men, and the pangs of sorrow that wring the hearts of the daughters of Eve as they see their first-born crimson with gore. And the tears of the widow and the destitute mothers will no longer mingle with the blood of the slain on the battlefields of peoples who falsely boast of their civilization.

THE BIG TREES SAVED.

It is worth more in money to the people of California that the grove of giant redwood trees in the Sierras, which were threatened by fire, have been saved, than all the gold output of all the mines of this State this year, "and then some." These giant sequoias are among the most interesting things on the face of the earth. They are to California what the ruins of castles and cathedrals are to Europe. They draw to the State innumerable tourists.

But they have a wider interest than this. They are objects almost of veneration to all who behold them. Their age is more impressive than their gigantic development. The sight-seer is impressed profoundly as he stands with thirty others, hand in hand, and the ring barely circumscribes the girth of the "Grizzly Giant," one of the big trees near the Yosemite. As he looks at the first limb 100 feet above his head, and learns that it is of twenty feet circumference, he feels a sense of awe.

But when we seek to grasp the age of this tree we are lost in wonder. Students of botany are not in accord in their estimates of growth. The tree referred to is one of the oldest in the State, if not the veritable patriarch. No one qualified in a small way to estimate its age puts the years of its existence at less than 4000. Most authorities put it at 6000; while some say this tree has stood the storms and floods of 8000 years and has escaped the ravages of many fires.

Then we look back to the days of Columbus, when the continent became known to Europe. We go back to the Crucifixion. We think of Moses, as long before the Christian era as Columbus was after that date. Back still to Abraham and the furthest dates of the Hebrew scriptures, which are considered practically correct. As we travel in thought, these trees were much as they are now when Columbus landed in America. They are not much changed since the apostles first began to preach. The mountains around them have not much changed since Moses received the law. They were great trees when Abraham kept his flocks.

Authentic history must be left and we must go beneath the sands of Egypt, where a buried civilization lies asleep, to reach the epoch whose men were contemporary with these trees in their youth.

Empires have been founded, grown to greatness and fallen to decay. Civilizations have been brought to perfection and have been succeeded by others, and remain only entombed in books. The centuries and millenniums have come and gone. A hundred generations of men have been born, fought out their battles, fretted their lives away and returned to the bosom of their mother earth. Through all these years and all their changes these trees stand in their majesty, strong and sturdy in their awful youth.

It should awaken heartfelt thankfulness on the part of us all that these venerable patriarchs of the elder world are spared.

BEACH LIFE HERE.

The summer, as measured by the calendar, is over, and the schools will soon throw wide open their doors to fit the "rising generations" for the tasks that life imposes. The weather, as reported from the signal service watch tower, gives no hint that winter is on the wing and sure to alight here for months or at any time. But the "heated terms" of the Los Angeles summer are all passed, and few they were and not too heated. The thought of a supersultry day is out of the question. The schools, though, are the real magnet that draws the beach dwellers back to their city homes.

All roads used to lead to great Rome. Now all roads lead away from the beaches along the white sands and blue waves of the Pacific. These roads are said to look like the route of a defeated army in full retreat. They are crowded with wagons bringing back to the city the household effects of the families who have been lulled to sleep by the music of the waves since July showed up on the calendar and the schools were closed. Everything from a piano to a dust pan is piled in great loads in the vans which rumble along between the deserted cottages on the strand and the city home. The pet cat in a cage, and paterfamilias's hat box are in the impedimenta of this army in retreat before the advancing dates upon the calendar.

Willie and Mollie will tuck up their "panties" no more this year to chase the fleeing waves with flying feet. "The man of the house" will not enjoy his plunge in the surf before breakfast again until another July comes, schools close and vacations come in vogue. Mother will now have a house and all its cares on her back, and will not sit by the waves and dream of lands beyond the seas and others beyond the clouds, where the sun goes down in glory.

Well, all that is the common experience of persons who live near sea beaches the world over. But there are features of this vacation life by the sea here not known elsewhere. There is no other place in the wide, wide world where all sorts and conditions of men and women and little children enjoy beach life as they do with us. In other places only the rich or the well-to-do dream of weeks at the beach. Multitudes, who live as near the sea as Los Angeles, is never in their lives enjoy a dip in the salt waves. Here nearly every one counts on the beach as part of his summer life. Persons in quite modest circumstances feel that they must spend a week or two in the sea air, and thousands spend a month or twice or three times that period.

There is so much beach within reach of Los Angeles. There is enough for thousands and not crowd any one, and they all are most attractive. The existence of this abundant sea beach and its beauties and the fact that so large a portion of the people can enjoy them are of the best assets of us all who live in this best portion of this best world.

HOROSCOPE.

Saturday, September 3, 1910.

BY COZZETTE.

Push thy affairs. The time is well. For those who travel or who wish to on this 24th day. Moon runs lowest on the ing node. Mars and Jupiter are in conjunction with the moon.

A good period for journeys, especially if made before 11 p.m.

Favorable influences are indicated with others on this day. The conditions auspicious before 3 p.m.

Consult surgeons, dentists or druggists. A lucky day for soldiers, hitchhikers, smiths, bakers, tailors, engineers or connected with the army or navy.

Open new places of business, whether morning, afternoon or evening.

Deal with merchants, bankers, dry goods, fashions, clothiers, milliners and dry goods.

Travel for health or pleasure, or take for amusement.

Hire men for office or shop.

At 11 a.m. today special virtues should be in the following herbs under Jupiter: samphire, asparagus, chicory, balm, myrrh, dandelion, licewort and liverwort.

Young women with this birthdate must care in making new acquaintances during twelvemonth. Married women may meet satisfying changes.

Men with this birthdate must pay attention to their business. Those in any way suffer if they permit themselves to be tant matters lie over.

Children born today are under signs of parents to train them to self-reliance and action. Otherwise boys will be more likely in employment of others than to rise to the ters of their own. Girls should be rather in marriage.

The trouble with popular government, says Prof. Paul M. Milysorok, is that the people over the age of 2 years, or write, and only about 10 per cent. pers. Hence, the trouble with the Democracy has no programme. The members are a state. The agrarian question, as a result of the first two Doumas were dissolved, has been the principal fact in the New Democracy. The land owners say that an increase of culture, but the government that by making the peasants private agrarian troubles will be settled.

Peace negotiations at The Hague have gotten in the general demand among the bigger navies.—[Washington Star.

There is a Rockefeller Association, with headquarters at Albany. Various men and women bearing the name belong. They "enthus" over the discovery of some old bones found in the south of France bearing the name Rockefeller. The "enthusiasm knows no bounds" when it is announced that some of these long-lost Rockefellers were barons. But no brains which bear any resemblance to those of John D. have yet been exhumed. These barons in the south of France seem to have been very barren of notable deeds, or the search need not have gone so far as the legends on tombstones.

But our old friend John D. is not afflicted with softening of the brain yet. There is not a sign of mental decay. He holds no office in the Rockefeller Association, nor does he seem to be a member. John D. goes to the oil fields for a patent of nobility, not to a graveyard. He will leave a fame self-made behind him, and need not go to France for it.

It is the longest cry in human history from the bludgeon of Cain, dyed crimson with a brother's blood, to the battleship fleet of the youngest of the nations circumnavigating the earth grown gray and wrinkled with the suns and frosts, the earthquakes and the tidal waves of the long, long centuries.

And through them all man's dominant trait has been war, and his occupation beating plowshares into spears and pruning hooks into swords. Not an age, hardly a year, but "Red Battle" has stamped his foot, and poor humanity has run covering to cover as doves before the eagle. The great men of history, as it stands recorded, are the Xerxes, the Alexanders, the Caesars, the Napoleons. The "city sacker" has been a coveted sobriquet among all men.

But a day long promised is coming—slowly, but surely. We are told that in the golden age of history the spears are to be bent back into plowshares and the swords into pruning hooks, and then men shall not learn war any more. It is coming, and it will arrive in time.

Here lies Russia, a great, populous empire, full of rich resources, which for centuries has shed the blood of its people in war, struggling to gain a seaport from which commerce might be carried on, and protected with a fleet of battleships. Hundreds of thousands have gone down to untimely death in that conflict, and millions of treasure have been wasted in plowshares converted into spears and pruning hooks into swords. The development of the nation has been held back for centuries in this needless strife.

Here is Germany, another great empire, now engaged in a similar struggle to build up an overseas commerce, and wasting millions in building war vessels to protect her merchant ships.

An ancient people, gray with centuries of time, which has been stagnating in the weeds of semi-barbarism, awakes on the islands along the coast of Asia, and becomes, as it were, a new-born nation. They are ambitious for trade, driven by their narrow bounds and sterile soil to seek wealth beyond seas, and their first work is to spend millions out of their general poverty to construct a navy to protect their commerce.

Why cannot the nations learn to live in harmony as neighbors do? Cain killed his brother to get rid of a rival. And all Adam's sons to our time have had the devilish idea that the world was not wide enough for all. Killing rivals has been the great business of us all. Persia tried to kill off Greece. Rome killed Carthage. Spain attempted to check the commercial ambition of England. All Europe has combined to keep Russia bottled up, and Germany is afraid she may not enjoy her overseas trade unless able to defend it with guns. Surely human civilization has made great headway, and is something to be proud of.

But light is breaking. Germany has learned that the mailed fist would better wear a kid glove, and that rattling a sword is not gooder than good diplomacy. Japan is so taxed preparing for a war that may never come that the conclusion is reached that the game costs too many candles. The Kaiser has taken to preaching peace, and the Mikado has called a halt in building battleships.

The nations should take a vacation from the schools in which they learn war, and sit down and think quietly over the proposition that with peoples as with persons, the true philosophy of life is to live and let live. If there were not so much of Cain's blood in the veins of most of us, it would be understood that the seas are the common heritage of all, that trade should be free, that honest rivalry for business is as good a method for nations as for neighbors.

That is coming. There will be a "parliament of man," a federation of the world, in which the rights of all will be recognized. There will be an international police force to patrol the high seas and protect the merchant ships of all nations from aggression on the part of any nation. In that good day the aggressor among the family of nations will be dealt with as the aggressor in any community. We shall have an international penitentiary, where the pirates will be shut up.

WOULD BE FOLLY TO DEFEAT IT.

SAYS OFF IN REGARD TO WATER PURCHASE PLAN.

President of Board of Trade Announces That That Institution Will Back Municipal Ownership Idea. Compromise Reached Over Tournament Park.

PASADENA, Sept. 4.—"After seeing the plan presented by the committee following a thorough investigation of the claims of engineers, and a trip over the ground yesterday, I cannot see how any one can overlook the fact that the plan offered to Pasadena, in the property, the real estate, and the abundant water supply that is at our gate. This was the statement of President Edward T. Ott in speaking as the head of the Board of Trade. The Times correspondent last night, regarding the purchase of the local water plants by the city.

The action of the board of directors supporting the deal is based on the results of two postal-card canvasses that have been conducted during the past few months, as well as the fact that the board has, in a way, favored the purchase of the water plants from the first inception of the scheme. Since the directors have been considering the matter in the past two months, the committee has been thoroughly investigating the claims of the engineers and the directors can now come before the people, feeling that they have the entire backing of the board and are working for the best interests of the city. The plan to the improvement of Tournament Park as well as to the purchase of the water plants.

"At this moment we are not ready to announce the plan of campaign, but the Board of Trade will have no small part in it. The directors are unanimous in endorsing the project, and have pledged themselves to carry the election to a successful termination."

COMPROMISE REACHED. Another important decision of yesterday was that by committee representing the city and the Tournament of Roses Association when one of the most democratic of compromises was reached regarding the wording of the deed to be given by the association to the city in case Tournament Park is accepted by the latter. The language over the proposition rested on a clause, which the directors wished inserted, to the effect that the property should be owned by the city and used for park purposes. This is because there was a fear that when the property became valuable it would be sold to the new Throop College site and Oak Knoll district—the opportunity for the city to make a good thing out of it might prove too strong for the administration not favorable to the park. The compromise effected allows the city to receive the park and at the end of twenty-five years to sell it, if such action is indicated by the vote of the people. For the next twenty-five years it is to be used for park purposes only and its further disposition will then rest with the citizens. Further, should the Tournament of Roses Association fail to build the park on New Year's Day for three years consecutively, it will forfeit its right to that day. In taking the park the city agreed to put in $50,000 in improvements at once.

The real estate men of the city were taken over the deal by the city and on their return held a short meeting, at which they unanimously adopted resolutions endorsing the plan of the city administration in securing the park. A committee of five was appointed to draw up resolutions approving the purchase of the park.

SHOWS GRAZES.

Physicians have hope for the recovery of N. T. Albright of No. 1054 Worcester avenue, who was seriously injured while playing on North Los Angeles avenue yesterday. While "riding beam" on a plow, the instrument upset and Albright was thrown to the ground under the plow, which struck his shoulder-blade broken. He was hurried to Pasadena hospital.

MIGHT INCORPORATE.

Perhaps as a means of getting rid of the health camp which has been thrust upon them by charitable Pasadena, the "Linda Vista Committee" on the health camp problem, in a signed statement, announced that they are short of water and wish to join Pasadena.

In a good statement the committee says: "There is a move on foot in Linda Vista at present for the purpose of incorporating into Pasadena. The great drawback to this community has been the lack of water and the people realize their need for this. If the city of Pasadena decides to buy up the city water plants it can be seen at a glance that this would mean to a dry community like Linda Vista that it decided to enter the corporation.

"Where would the health camp be then, and how would it affect Pasadena?"

The committee further contends that it would be a detriment to the city to have within the corporate limits a camp on the edge of the city, a health camp which would be the refuge of tuberculosis patients and other diseased people. It scorns the proposal to have the Legislature aid in the establishment of the camp, and vows vengeance if such a proposition is brought at the next session. The committee is strong for a "spiteless" community and is willing to come in if it can get rid of the health camp. Many local business men and prominent citizens have signed a petition backing the fight against the camp.

PASADENA BEVITIES.

The tennis tournament at the Pasadena Y.M.C.A. will not open until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

At meeting yesterday morning a committee consisting of property owners in Oak Knoll and at the lower end of Oak Knoll avenue, decided to extend Los Robles avenue from its terminus below California street, through to Glenasmole street.

BABIES RULE AT FESTIVAL.

Prize Winners in Gay Parade at Long Beach.

For Third Time Aeroplanes Refuse to Fly.

King Will Usurp Queen's Throne Tonight.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 4.—Today was the day of the Festival of the Sea and the little tots attracted thousands of sightseers.

The baby parade this morning was a novel sight. The sixty odd young Americans riding in daintily-decorated equipages propelled by smiling mammas or grown-up sisters, or drawn along by merry little friends, made a special touch seldom seen. For the success all credit must be given Mrs. C. C. Lord.

NO CRY BABIES. The babies and their escorts began assembling at 9:30 a. m. and for over an hour waited the starting signal.

The Labor Day picnic at the beach will consist of a log-rolling to be conducted in Santa Monica Canyon, a Woodmen of the World, representing all the Los Angeles camps. There will be a barbecue at noon and the afternoon will be spent in a series of games and contests.

One of the Admission Day affairs of the day is the picnic at the beach, given at Playa del Rey by the Retail Grocers' Association of Los Angeles.

All-day programs of races, sports and contests of various kinds will be arranged and for the several events liberal prizes will be awarded. The grocery stores of the city will close for the day.

TROPICO, Sept. 4.—Robert Carmack, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carmack, who suffered the right hand by having it crushed in a hand-printing press, has recovered.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church gave a tea at the Pasadena Y.M.C.A. for the benefit of the returned from India, and who has been actively engaged in missionary work for fifty years, gave an interesting talk.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Biddle are enjoying a vacation at San Diego.

Spend your holidays at Venice.

SAN PEDRO. The annual Catholic picnic for the benefit of Mary Star of the Sea church will take place at Point Pinos on Labor Day. Refreshments will be served all day in the new pavilion, which is kindly donated to Father Connolly for the occasion. A dance under the direction of Prof. Katschke will continue all day and evening.

A baseball game between the Harbor City team and the Dysan team will be another feature. The refreshment booth will be in charge of Mrs. Darling and the ice cream booth will be presided over by Mrs. Holmsberg.

LITTLE PLAYWRIGHT. Secretary Savall of the Associated Charities Appropriately Recognizes Child's Efforts.

Little Zola Caldwell of Pico Heights, recently wrote and staged a play and produced it with the aid of her schoolmates for the benefit of the Associated Charities, has been rewarded by a suitable recognition by the officers of the association.

"The Sighting Beauty," she named it, and from the proceeds at 5 cents as the price of admission, she sent $5.00 to the Associated Charities. Superintendent Spencer C. Sewell has written her a letter highly commending her work and the loving spirit that prompted it. He inclosed to her a membership in the Associated Charities, which she will no doubt highly prize as a reward for her first efforts as author and playwright.

CLAIMS AGAINST THAW FILED. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 4.—Eight claims aggregating $10,311 against the bankrupt estate of Harry K. Thaw were filed with Referee in Bankruptcy W. R. H. H. yesterday. The largest was that of Joseph C. Thaw, a brother, which was for $3,640.

TROPICO, Sept. 4.—Robert Carmack, the seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Carmack, who suffered the right hand by having it crushed in a hand-printing press, has recovered.

The ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Episcopal Church gave a tea at the Pasadena Y.M.C.A. for the benefit of the returned from India, and who has been actively engaged in missionary work for fifty years, gave an interesting talk.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Biddle are enjoying a vacation at San Diego.

Spend your holidays at Venice.

SAN PEDRO. The annual Catholic picnic for the benefit of Mary Star of the Sea church will take place at Point Pinos on Labor Day. Refreshments will be served all day in the new pavilion, which is kindly donated to Father Connolly for the occasion. A dance under the direction of Prof. Katschke will continue all day and evening.

A baseball game between the Harbor City team and the Dysan team will be another feature. The refreshment booth will be in charge of Mrs. Darling and the ice cream booth will be presided over by Mrs. Holmsberg.

LITTLE PLAYWRIGHT. Secretary Savall of the Associated Charities Appropriately Recognizes Child's Efforts.

Little Zola Caldwell of Pico Heights, recently wrote and staged a play and produced it with the aid of her schoolmates for the benefit of the Associated Charities, has been rewarded by a suitable recognition by the officers of the association.

"The Sighting Beauty," she named it, and from the proceeds at 5 cents as the price of admission, she sent $5.00 to the Associated Charities. Superintendent Spencer C. Sewell has written her a letter highly commending her work and the loving spirit that prompted it. He inclosed to her a membership in the Associated Charities, which she will no doubt highly prize as a reward for her first efforts as author and playwright.

CLAIMS AGAINST THAW FILED. PITTSBURGH, Sept. 4.—Eight claims aggregating $10,311 against the bankrupt estate of Harry K. Thaw were filed with Referee in Bankruptcy W. R. H. H. yesterday. The largest was that of Joseph C. Thaw, a brother, which was for $3,640.

babies under 6 months. This was won by Curtis Amman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Amman, who weighed twenty-five pounds. Curtis is a physical-culture baby, and bore his honors with modesty.

The prize for babies under 1 year was won by William Gay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gay, 10 months, weight twenty-five pounds.

In the contest for the heaviest baby under 2 years, the judges struck a snag. Three qualified, Josephine Fisher, Marion Henshall and Robert Hayes, each weighing forty-two pounds. The committee finally decided to draw lots, and Marion Henshall was awarded the prize.

NAMELESS MITE WINS. Of all the honors of a baby show Long Beach can claim the most novel, and this was in the event for the youngest baby. This was won by the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Switzer, who was born at 7:10 o'clock last night, and is not yet named. His father is Idaho Springs, and the baby was brought to the show by his great grandmother, Mrs. H. T. Read.

The eighth child of the fifth generation, and weighs 9½ pounds.

Only one entry was made in the twins class, and the award went to Pearl and Ruby Scott, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Betts of Whittier.

The last awards were to the prettiest babies, the first prize going to Maxine Porter, 18 months old, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Porter; Edna Holmes, daughter of Mr.

BABIES RULE AT FESTIVAL.

Prize Winners in Gay Parade at Long Beach.

For Third Time Aeroplanes Refuse to Fly.

King Will Usurp Queen's Throne Tonight.

LONG BEACH, Sept. 4.—Today was the day of the Festival of the Sea and the little tots attracted thousands of sightseers.

The baby parade this morning was a novel sight. The sixty odd young Americans riding in daintily-decorated equipages propelled by smiling mammas or grown-up sisters, or drawn along by merry little friends, made a special touch seldom seen. For the success all credit must be given Mrs. C. C. Lord.

NO CRY BABIES. The babies and their escorts began assembling at 9:30 a. m. and for over an hour waited the starting signal.

The Labor Day picnic at the beach will consist of a log-rolling to be conducted in Santa Monica Canyon, a Woodmen of the World, representing all the Los Angeles camps. There will be a barbecue at noon and the afternoon will be spent in a series of games and contests.
